Manteno offers banner program for vets, soldiers

MANTENO — Downtown Manteno will be even more patriotic around Memorial Day.

The village is offering a chance for families to showcase veteran and soldiers through its hometown hero banner program. Banners will display the veteran’s or soldier’s name, branch of military and photo.

It costs $20 to sponsor a banner. Which the village will hang from its light poles on Memorial Day through Veterans Day.

Applications can be filled out at Village Hall or printed through the village’s website.

A version of this story previously ran in the March 24 edition of the Daily Journal.